A DECREASE IN TRAFFIC

LESS THAN 20,000 LOADED CARS HAN-DLED HERE LAST WEEK.

Mistakes of Passenger Conductors, as Viewed by a General Superintendent-General Notes.

The train records show that a total of 26,311 cars were handled at Indianapolis in the week ending June 3, and of that number 19.992 were loaded, which is 447 fewer loaded cars than were handled at Indianapolis in the preceding week, and 1,201 fewer than in the corresponding week of 1898, but, going back of 1898, the exhibit is more favorable for this year, there being 1,253 more loaded cars handled here last week than in the corresponding week of 1897, 4,467 more than it will be seen that the business now moving is phenomenally large for early June. As for some time past, all decreases in business are on east-bound tonnage, and chiefly in grain, as more provisions, hides ceraline products and miscellaneous freights are moving eastward than usual at this season of the year. As for several months past, west-bound business is heavy beyond precedent. There has been some falling off in high-class freights west-bound for the last two weeks, but this has been more than offset by the increased tonnage of low-class freights. North-and-south roads continue to make favorable exhibits. Immense quantitles of lumber from the Southern States and of fruits and vegetables are being shipped north, and as the South develops more machinery is being shipped and con-siderable quantities of merchandise. Local business continues to exceed the expecta-A falling off is looked for in late May and early June, but the amount of freight handled over the city freight-depot platforms and in the bulk yards has never before been equalled, and freight men say it is all carried at good rates. In handling fruits and vegetables, building material and material for street improvements the bulk tracks of the companies come in good play, the Pennsylvania and the Big Four handling thousands of carloads of freight each month on these bulk tracks. The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton and the Monon will in a few days have their system of bulk tracks completed, which will be of great aid in securing business for the two roads. It will be noticed that there is a large movement of empty cars, the roads anticipating an increased movement of the old crops yet to be marketed and preparing to move the new wheat crop. Below is given the car movement for the week ending June 3 and for the corresponding weeks of 1898 and 1897:

Conductors' Mistakes. "That man who just passed out," said an official of one of the Indianapolis lines, 'was dismissed a week ago for bad habits. and there has been a general howl on the part of his friends over his dismissal. He had been gambling and drinking when on duty, was a sporting man in other directions, and he admits all-still, his friends blame the railroad company for dismissing him. "I think," said he, "semetimes that had the passenger conductors more to do they would not get into these bad habits, which they know mean discharge if found out, and they are very sure to be. Once and for all I wish to say that whenever a passenger conductor of this road is discharged it may be set down that he has done something decidedly wrong. There has never been a passenger conduc-tor discharged on this road who had not been warned of his fate, not only once but twice or three times, and it is his own fault if he persists in disobeying the rules of the company and loses his place. So far as this road is concerned the men are paid well, not overworked, and a job is worth keeping, but some men pay no heed to warnings, and eventually it means dismissal. No Game at Detroit. DETROIT, Mich., June 4.-Sheriff Stewart, of Wayne county, refused to allow today's scheduled game between Milwaukee and Detroit to be played. An effort was made to have it transferred to Milwaukee, but Manager Mack would not make the trip from Buffalo unless the Detroit team would play there Monday and Tuesday also. This President Vanderbeck refused to do and the game was postponed until the next Eastern trip of the Milwaukees, when a double-header will be played.

Du Paty De Clam in Dreyfus Cell. PARIS, June 3.-Col. Du Paty de Clam is is confined in the cell where he tortured Dreyfus. He showed himself a torturing inquisitor, bereft of conscience. What an awful awakening there must now be of the hidden monitor! Nemesis has been less halt-ing than usual in overtaking him. I am told that he was preparing to escape to Belgium when he was arrested. Madame Du Paty de Clam is a sister of the Duke d'Ursel, a great Belgian nobleman, who is also governor of the province of Hainault. His first cousin is Count Mun, head of the Catholic party in the French Chamber of Deputies. Her brother recently married a daughter of Comte and Comtesse De Franqueville, nee Earad. They are owners of Chateau Muette, at Passy, which was formerly a royal shooting lodge. The chateau stands in a large park with stateavenues of ancient trees planted two hundred years ago.

Madame Du Paty de Clam had the clerical party behind her, and Col. Du Paty de Clam was protected by his cousin, M. Cavaignac. He, feeling himself forsaken, is likely to make revelations.

General Mercier, former minister of war, shows nervousness, though not the white feather. He, too, was advised to go abroad, but he will not do so. Before Col. Du Paty de Clam's arrest his description and photographs of him were sent to the frontier commissioners of police A pathetic feature of the Dreyfus case the eleven long supplicatory letters to President Faure from Devil's island. Dreyfus fancied that General De Boisdeffre and M. Faure were his friends, and he wrote them accordingly. His heart, soul and exasperated nerves were expressed in those letters. No wonder that M. Faure, in dying, supplicated all those whom he had injured to forgive him. "Those" meant, coming from Faure's lips, Dreyfus and his family. The late President suffered himself to be blackmailed into hindering the work of justice and Nemises took him up also. Were he still alive the event of to-day could not have happened. President Loubet has stood out against all tampering with the judica-Colonel Picquart's memorial was adopted, hough in terms by the Court of Cassation.

pyright, 1899, by the Associated Press.] LONDON, June 3. - A representative of the Associated Press has made inquiries with that the United States Ambassador, Joseph Choate, has had two interviews on the subject with the Marquis of Salisbury, at which his strong representation or the American view of the matter met with a most promising reception. Mr. Choate, since his arrival in England, has taken the liveliest interest in the case. He has received every shred of information in the matter, has asked for high judicial opinions, and his own legal knowledge has given him exceptional facility in dealing with the intricacles of the case. One of Mrs. Maybrick's advocates, a well-known worker of the Liberal party, J. H. Levy, provided Mr. Choate with a specially compiled dossier of the whole case, in the collation of which he received the advice of the highest legal authorities in the kingdom, including the lord chief justice. Baron Russell of Killowen, and Lord James of Hereford, attorney general to the Prince of Wales, one of the calmest judicial minds, who definitely states that the position taken by Henry Matthews (the former home secretary, now Viscount Llan-daff) was absurd, and shows in the strongest light the present confused state of the English criminal law. Mr. Choate received the most definite in structions from Washington, the gist being that he was to press for an immediate revision of the case, as the United States government considered that the time had arrived for an immediate consideration of To these instructions and the spirit which they are being carried out by Mr. Choate, who said: 'I will see this thing through,' Mrs. Maybrick's impending freedom will be largely due.

Gamblers Roasting Stoan.

LONDON, June 3.—The fickleness of pop-ularity is beginning to demonstrate itself in the case of Tod Sloan, whose recent failures have wrecked many of his supporters. His tig backers, like Riley Grannan and the Dwyers, have pocketed their losses like true sportsmen and have retired to America. It is the small fry who, while Sloan succeeded, reaped a harvest and are now losing, cannot find words enough to denounce him.
One of these, on returning from Epsom last night, filled the corridors of the Hotel Cecil with rantings against the honesty of Sloan's Oaks failure, until the hotel officials had to remonstrate. Col. Tom Ochiltree declares himself a heavy loser and says Sloan is a great jockey for five furlongs, but when is a great jockey for five furiongs, but when every one expects him to win and backs him heavily, he is left at the post, and that in no other way could he have lost the Oaks.

General Henderson's Figures.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Congressman D. B. Henderson, of Iowa, who came to Chicago, says the following votes are now pledged to him for speaker: Illinois, 14: Iowa, 11: Ohlo, 15: Wisconsin, 10: Minnesota, 7: South Dakota, 2: Massachusetts, 10: Maryland, 4. To this will be added to a certainty, it is asserted by the friends of General Henderson, the votes of the Michigan and Indiana delegations, twelve from the former and nine tions, twelve from the former and from the latter, giving him a total of 94 votes, or one more than a majority of the Later in the afternoon word came from Topeka that six of the seven Republican congressmen in Kansas were also for Henderson. Word was also received from Congressman Fowler, of New Jersey, saying there would be votes for General Henderson from that delegation and an intimation that the East would do much more for him than had been looked for.

Terre Haute Team Is "Busted." TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 3.—There was no game with Danville to-day and the Indiana-Illinois League team at this place is a thing of the past. President Schmidt rather blundered in withdrawing the franchise from Manager Hill, who holds the franchise on the ball park, and thus holds the key to the situation here. A stock company is ready to take the team but Hill pany is ready to take the team, but Hill will not give up the park and the players will endeavor to sign with some other club. President Schmidt says to-night that the franchise will be turned over to Mattoon next week if Hill refuses to let the local company have the park and continue the Terre Haute club in the league. This complication arose out of the meeting of the magnates held here yesterday, when it was decided to discipline Hill, of Terre Haute,
